

Curate Joy. Gift Local.

Support small-batch Australia with exceptional corporate gifts.

MADEBOX.

The joy of good business.

Madebox is a purpose-led gifting company curating premium gift boxes and product collections from over 400 of Australia's most exceptional small-batch producers.

Created to support local makers affected by fires, floods, and the pandemic, we now help organisations connect with guests through unforgettable gifts and experiences that celebrate Australian creativity and care.

A gift with meaning.

Every Madebox is a curated experience — a sensory celebration of Australia's land, flavour, and craftsmanship.

Thoughtfully chosen products tell the stories of rural makers and artisans, delivering memorable moments for international guests, speakers, and VIPs alike.

Stories that stay with you.

Each product comes with a story card that introduces the recipient to the maker — and the passion behind their craft.

These personal stories create a deeper connection, transforming a gift into something far more meaningful.

Testimonials.

“For the past two years, Omera Partners has partnered with Madebox for year-end and thank-you gifts, consistently impressing our clients and team. Madebox’s commitment to supporting Australian-owned businesses, exceptional service, and expertly curated selections set them apart. Their ability to showcase the best of Australian craftsmanship—combined with beautifully branded, standout gifts—makes them an invaluable partner in creating memorable experiences.”

— Kate Tinkler, Associate Partner, Communication and Culture

“For years now, I have aspired to find corporate gifting that is not just ‘any’ gift, but more about social enterprise and whilst also giving back. Madebox (and Sam’s amazing commitment to her company & its products) finally met this aspiration - and took it to another level, curating beautiful gift boxes, all individual and unique. The gift boxes are of such high quality, and it’s such a pleasure to receive them whilst also knowing you have supported something good, helping the heart of Australia. Thank you, Madebox, you really did produce the gift that gives back!”

— Kathryn Ramsden, Office Manager
